

To connect a hose into a port, pull the small tab alongside the port AWAY from the hose. This will open the port. Gently push the hose into the port until it is all the way in. Slide the tab back towards the hose until you feel it lock into place. This will ensure a positive connection.